

PRESS RELEASE

Stockholm, Sweden, March 15, 2017 for immediate release

King of the Storm - A Heroes of the Storm Tournament announced.

With HotS Caster “Kendric” leading the tournament it will be a mixture of serious brawling and classic ESEN Studio fun. Part of the broadcast will be devoted to the game, analytics, latest major tournament results and more fun. The extra content of the show will be hosted by Jennifer “Murderslayer” Eserblom and Rikard “The Swede” Franzén both well known from other ESEN Studio productions.

“We’re excited to kick off the new King of the Storm Tournament! It’s such a pleasure to finally be able to launch a tournament on this licence. Everyone at ESEN Studio grew up with Warcraft, Diablo and Starcraft’s universe, and we definitely can feel the same atmosphere in Heroes of the Storm. It will also enable us to provide a brand new show to our viewers, as well as a really competitive tournament for the players! Tune in so you don’t miss the entertainment” Says Jonathan “Hirosawa” Grotzinger at ESEN Studio.

The goal is to attract teams from all around Europe to compete in a tournament with a lot of heart and fun. The competition will feature

- Qualifiers: 1 Qualifier/Week for 4 Weeks, and we will broadcast both Semi Finals and the Final each week on our main twitch channel .The 2 finalists will be qualified for our playoffs phase
- Playoffs: The 8 best teams from the qualifiers will compete during this phase in order to win the title Kings of the Storm. Quarter finals, Semi finals and Grand final will be broadcasted live (The bronze final won’t be broadcasted)
- Teams expected each week: 64 | 320 players

The School of HotS. or SHotS

During the whole tournament our caster “Boogie” who is casting CS:GO normally will learn how to play and also cast HotS with “reboot”, the super duper french dude. Join “Boogie” on his journey in becoming a HotS specialist. So even if you don’t know anything about the game you can watch the show and learn a bit more for every episode together with “Boogie” and “reboot”.

King of the Storm starts CET 19,00 16/3 on www.twitch.tv/kingofnordic
